Bounding through the busy street, Ranging cellar, shed and hall. Never count the moments lost, Never mind the time it costs-Little feet will go astray, Guide them, mother, while you may.

Mojher! watch the little hand Picking betries by the way, Making houses in the sand, Tossing up the fragrant hay. Never dare the question ask, Why to me this weary task?" These same little hands may prove Messengers of life and love.

Mother! watch the little tongue Pratling eloquent and wild, What is said and what is sung, By the happy, joyous child. Catch the word while yet unspoken; Stop the vow before 'tis broken, This same tongue may yet proclaim Blessings on a Saviour's name.

Mother! watch the little heart Beating soft and warm for you; Wholesome lessons now impart, Keep, oh, keep that young heart true. Extirpating every weed, Sowing good and precious seed; Harvest rich you then may see, Ripening for eternity.
